The following appeared in the Boston papers yesterday as a despatch from Northampton. "E. C. Crosby of Brattleboro, managing director of the Northampton & Amherst Street Railway company, who was in Northampton yesterday, stated that the petitioners had received notification from the commissioners that their decision would be favorable to the proposed consolidation of the Northampton & Amherst, Greenfield, Deerfield & Northampton, and the Greenfield & Turners Falls Street Railway companies. The full text of the decision has not yet been given, and it may be several days before copies of it are received."
